

Stockmanship & Stewardship Tentative Agenda
Springfield, Missouri
September 4 - 6, 2025

Thursday September 4:

12:00pm - 5:00pm

SBS Train the Train Trainer Workshop (lunch provided)

Friday September 5:

10:00am – 10:15am

Welcome, opening remarks (coffee, water, breakfast snacks)

Attendees receive individual biosecurity plan and give instructions on the day

10:15am – 11:15am

Basics of Biosecurity and why it's important and the threat of FAD

Julia Herman, DVM, and representative from MO state vet office

11:15am – 12:45pm

Biosecurity rotations

Rotation one (premises map)

Rotation two (applying biosecurity principles on your operation)

Kirk Ramsey, DVM, Neogen

Rotation three

1:00pm – 1:45pm

Lunch – Foreign Animal Disease Outbreak Response in Missouri: What producers should know

2:00pm

S&S Registration opens

3:00pm – 3:30pm

Welcome and Orientation

Adam McGee PhD, Missouri State University, Ally Crick, Missouri Beef Industry Council

3:30pm – 4:30pm

Screwworm on the Radar: A USDA Update

4:30pm – 5:30pm

Heterosis: What is it Worth?

Jack Ward - American Hereford Association, Paige Pratt PhD - Neogen

5:30pm

Break

5:45pm

True Value of a Carcass: How BQA Principles Impact Quality

Daniel Clark, Certified Angus Beef

7:00pm

Dinner and Keynote

Colin Woodall, NCBA CEO

Saturday September 6:

7:00am

Registration Open

7:30am

Welcome

7:45am – 8:45am

Breeding the Next Generation

Jordan Thomas, University of Missouri Assistant Professor

8:45am – 10:00am

Stocking Smart: Breeding & Culling with Purpose

Dave Lalman, PhD, Oklahoma State University Extension Beef Cattle Specialist

10:00am	Break
10:15am – 11:15am	Rooted in Nutrition: Unlocking the Power of Forage Management Eric Bailey, PhD, University of Missouri
11:15am – 11:45am	Lunch
11:45am – 12:45pm	Principles of Low Stress Cattle Handling Ron Gill, PhD, and Curt Pate
12:45pm – 1:45pm	Low Stress Cattle Handling Demonstration Ron Gill, PhD, and Curt Pate
1:45pm	Break
2:00pm – 4:30pm	Rotating Sessions From Trailer to Table: Livestock Transport, Accident Response, and Foreign Material Prevention Jason Duggin, University of Georgia Administer with Care: Protecting Animal Health & Beef Integrity Kirk Ramsey, DVM, Neogen
4:30pm	Event Conclusion and BQA test

Note, this is a working agenda, as speakers/ topics become finalized this will be updated frequently. ***